

Directions for downloading and/or subscribing to RBC sermon audio podcasts

To download sermons:

1. Go to www.rbckalamazoo.org
2. Click on the “Resources” page and then the “Sermon Audio” link on the left.
3. If you do not have iTunes installed, you will be prompted to download and install it. If you do have iTunes installed (or once it is installed), the RBC sermon podcast will be displayed in the iTunes store.
4. Click on “Get Episode” (next to the sermon title in the lower area) to download a particular sermon. The sermon will be available in the “Podcasts” menu on the left side of the iTunes window after the download is complete.

To subscribe to the RBC sermon audio podcasts:

1. Follow steps 1 - 3 above.
2. Click on “Subscribe.”
3. Click on the “Podcasts” menu to view the list of available sermons to download. NOTE: The latest sermon will automatically start downloading when you subscribe.
4. Modify the podcast settings in iTunes by going to preferences. This allows you to specify if you want sermons to automatically download to your computer when new ones are available.
